Parent, Counselor and Church Consent

1. She should be present at all planning meetings during the year. She will have duties to perform during the year. Some of those duties are dictated by the office, others will be assigned to her by the president or advisory personnel.
2. Travel expenses to officers meetings are not provided. If the officers take a trip together during the year, those expenses are not provided. An adult officer will plan the trip and supervise the girls. She will need support to help her in fulfilling the duties of her office with letters, postage, meeting and mailing deadlines.
